

Abstract

In 1968, S.S. Chern raised to attention the question that there might be further Riemannian obstructions for a manifold to admit an isometric minimal immersion into an Euclidean space.

This question triggered a whole new direction of study in the geomholen Td [(S)-4t3.89 0eb5 TD [(l)