

Abstract:

In this work, we consider a 2D lattice gas model of two species of particles, called the active (A) and the passive (P), in which their interactions are performed by a mutual exclusion principle. This two-